The School of Theology at Claremont is a leading center for theological education in the United States.

At the School of Theology, students receive a liberal arts education with a strong emphasis on biblical studies and theology. The School is a member of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) and is accredited by the ATS and the American Association of Christian Schools (AACCS).

Individual attention, all that is needed, is given Northwest students by a staff of twelve competent teachers.

RESOLUTIONS—Upon motion of Robert Brumblay, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved: That we endorse the plan of our official papers to observe Sunday, November 6, 1921, as "Peace Sunday" throughout the church and that on that day we summon our people to pray for the peace of the world and that our pulpit themes bear specifically upon the subject of the reduction of the armaments and the realization of universal peace.

On motion of M. H. Marvin the following was adopted:

IN MEMORIAM: Having learned with deep regret that one of our chief pastors, Bishop W. S. Lewis, has passed to the land that knows no pain nor death, we hereby express our appreciation of his faithful ministry of love and service. The whole church is bereft.

Our sister republic of China is deprived of the leadership of a rare and Christian scholar, whose wise guidance through troublous days has endeared him to the awakening peoples of the Orient.

To the stricken family of Bishop Lewis we extend sympathy, confident that the joy which seeks us through our pain will find and comfort them.

Signed: HENRY BROWN,
M. H. MARVIN.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS—A vote was taken on Amendment Number 1: To Admit Laymen to the Annual Conference, with the following result: For the adoption—None. Against the adoption—63.

The case of A. L. Hawley was presented by the Special Committee and after discussion was referred to Committee on Conference Relations.

QUESTION 19—The Committee on Conference Relations brought forward the case of C. A. Huff and he was permitted to withdraw.

REPORTS—The Committee on Education presented a report which was adopted and elections made according to recommendation.

Adjourned.

FIFTH DAY—SUNDAY SERVICES

The service of the Sabbath was carried out according to the official program except that Dr. E. C. Hickman was substituted for Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick.

At the afternoon service the Bishop baptised the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Cook and the son of Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Pemberton and at the same time and place, assisted by Elders, ordained Thomas W. Emery and Howard W. Mort to the office of Deacon; also Byron C. Gallaher, John A. Hoffman, Harry A. Wann, and Ray R. Martin to the office of Elder in the Church of God.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1921

Following the Devotional Services, the Secretary read the minutes of Saturday's session, which were corrected and approved.

The Bishop presented certificates of ordination to those ordained yesterday as follows: Byron C. Gallaher, Ray R. Martin, John A. Hoffman and Harry A. Wann, Elders; Howard W. Mort and Thomas W. Emery, Deacons.

EXCUSED—Upon the request of W. E. Armfield, the Board of Stewards was excused from the session.

E. J. SNELL—On motion of Charles MacCaughey, the Superintendent of the Wenatchee District was instructed to proceed in his case according to Paragraph 265, Section 4, of Discipline 1920.

QUESTION 13—"Is this Annual Conference incorporated according to the requirements of the Discipline?" It is.

QUESTION 25—"Who are the Triers of Appeals?"

On nomination, the following were elected Trier of Appeals: C. A. Hodshire, J. H. Secor, John G. Law, T. H. Fertig, and Stanley G. Logan. Reserves: H. O. Perry and H. J. Wood.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE—M. J. Perdue reported upon the advisability of holding an Older Boys' Conference in connection with the Annual Conference and upon motion of M. R. Gallaher, it was referred to a committee of five. The following were elected: M. J. Perdue, J. H. Secor, D. L. Clarke, M. H. Marvin, and Robert Brumblay.

REPORTS—The following reports were read and accepted by the Conference:

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools by J. E. Purdy.

Report of Conference Superintendent of Sunday Schools—M. J. Perdue.

Report of Conference Treasurer—G. E. James.

Report of Conference Statistician—Henry Attenborough.

Report of Conference Board of Home Missions and Church

Extension read by Stanley G. Logan and moved to be published in the minutes.

NOMINATIONS—M. J. Perdue nominated the Conference Board of Sunday Schools for the coming year and they were approved. See Boards and Committees.

On motion of the Registrar, Louis Thomas was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Examiners made by the transfer of W. H. Forsyth, and F. L. Cook to fill the vacancy made by the retirement of E. C. Corn.

DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS 28, 29, and 30 were called and their answers are to be found in Disciplinary Questions.

QUESTION 36—"Where shall the next Conference be held?"

On motion of N. M. Jones, the invitation of Ellensburg was accepted.

QUESTION 27—"What is the annual report of the Conference Board of Foreign Missions?" There was none.

On recommendation of the Conference Relations Committee, J. W. Miller and A. L. Hawley were continued in the supernumerary relation (6).

On motion of H. F. Pemberton, S. E. Hornibrook was placed upon the effective list.

ACTION RESCINDED—It was moved by John G. Law that the action of last Annual Conference as follows be rescinded: "That the Board of Stewards keep a record of the pastors who fail to pro-rate with Conference Claimants and that should such pastors become claimants in this conference, such amounts should be charged against their annuities." The motion carried.

FAILURE TO PRO-RATE—On motion of J. G. Law, the Board of Stewards were instructed to read in open conference, the names of those failing to pro-rate their ministerial support as ordered in the Discipline.

It was moved by Charles MacCaughey that the apportionment to the charges for Conference Claimants be on the minister's cash salary of the ensuing year as set at the first quarterly conferences of that year and that same be on a graduating scale of percentages. See scale at end of Report of Board of Stewards.

ADJOURNMENT—Upon motion of H. J. Wood, Conference adjourned to meet at 1 o'clock, after the benediction by J. S. Bell.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 5, 1921

After a short devotional meeting, the session opened with J. S. Bell presiding.

REPORTS—The following reports were read and accepted: Report on Hospitals and Homes by C. C. Curry. See report.

Report and recommendations of Conference Deaconess Board by M. J. Perdue. See report.

Report of Committee on permanent grounds for the Epworth League Institute. Report adopted and committee continued by vote of Conference.

Report of Committee on Education by Gabriel Sykes.

Report of Board of Stewards with nominations by Joseph M. Adams. Report accepted and nominations confirmed.

RESOLUTIONS—Gabriel Sykes introduced a resolution asking that hereafter District Superintendent reports be limited to a thousand words and that the same be published in the minutes of the Conference. Carried.

HOSPITAL STANDARDS—On motion of John G. Law, the Secretary was instructed to represent to the American College of Surgeons our request that they recognize in their hospital the proper work of osteopaths.

And that we defend our own hospital against being singled out in this matter when other hospitals that have the same standards escape criticism.

Bishop Shepard took the chair.

QUESTION 33—What amount has been apportioned to the Pastoral Charges within the Conference to be raised for the support of Conference Claimants? $21,929. See resolution following Board of Steward's report.

QUESTION 34—What amount has been paid by the Conference Treasurer to the Board of Conference Claimants? $277.

PUBLISHING COMMITTEE—On motion of Charles MacCaughey, a committee of four were appointed to assist in editing the Annual Minutes. The following were appointed: The Secretary, Statistician, J. M. Adams and Charles Creesy.

By motion of H. F. Pemberton, the printed Journal was made the official Journal of the Conference.

MISCELLANEOUS—On nomination of H. O. Perry, J. H. Secor was elected to a place on the Conference Relations Committee to succeed W. H. H. Forsyth.

The following were left without appointment to attend school: Marion W. Sligar, Dean Poindexter, John Moore, Ray H. Martin, James Hart.

The Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions read his report and it was adopted.

On motion of R. C. Motor, the Conference went on record as being in favor of the Smith-Towner Bill now pending in Congress.

On motion of J. W. Caughlin, the Conference Trustees were authorized to loan to the Okanogan Charge $1,000, and to Twisp-Winthrop Charge, the remainder of the total sum received from the sale of the Harrington property for a period of five years without interest.

TRANSFERRED IN—The following were received by transfer: K. O. Pearson from Montana Conference, R. C. Young from Oregon Conference, F. L. Wemett from Oregon Conference, E. E. Brace from Puget Sound Conference. Bernard C. Brewster from Oregon and J. H. Secor from Puget Sound were transferred during the year.

TREASURER—On nomination by H. T. Greene, G. E. James was re-elected Conference Treasurer for the ensuing year.

AUDITOR—On nomination of H. T. Greene, Hubert Vincent was re-elected Auditor for the ensuing year.

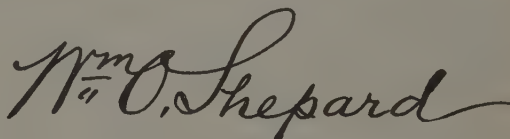

The report of the Committee on Charities and Reforms was read by B. C. Gallaher and accepted.

The Committee on Temperance read its report and the same was accepted.

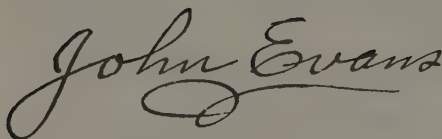

ADJOURNMENT--W. E. Armfield moved that after the reading of the appointments, the Conference stand adjourned, sine die.

The appointments were read by Bishop Shepard, after which he pronounced the benediction.

We hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct report of the proceedings of the forty-eighth session of the Columbia River Annual Conference.

AUDITING COMMITTEE

The committee have examined the accounts of the district superintendents, Secretary of the Endowment Association, Treasurer of Conference Claimants and the Conference Treasurer and Secretary, and found those at hand to be correct.

According to the action of last year we did not audit the pastors' reports.

HUBERT VINCENT, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON GROUNDS FOR PERMANENT LOCATION OF EPWORTH LEAGUE AND SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTES

Your Committee regrets that it is compelled to report that the property under consideration at last Conference session was not secured and no other favorable ground has been found. We believe that we will not be able to do the great constructive work with our young people that ought to be done until such grounds are secured.

THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

This society is vitally interested and is closely related to the needs of the church and the parsonage home. We therefore commend it and urge the pastors to give such assistance to the organizing of auxiliaries wherever possible.

J. D. BIRD,
CHAS. A. HODSHIRE,
C. M. CARSON.

THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is now sufficiently well known to need no detailed explanation, yet there is no danger of overemphasizing its value and efficiency. The Christian life must find its expression in doing for others, or die within its own selfish limits. The women of our Church are learning their responsibility for the ignorant and suffering womanhood of the non-Christian world, are sending, and going, that the love of Christ may become known.

From this Conference a daughter of the parsonage, Miss Ruth Warner, has gone to teach the girls of South America, and a Deaconess nurse, Miss Ethel Butts, is doing hospital work in Korea.

In hearty recognition of woman's work for the womanhood of the non-Christian world we give encouragement to the society and co-operation in its obedience to the Master's command: "Go ye into all the world."

METHODIST BOYS' SCHOOL FOR THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Your Committee on Education wishes to present the following:

We appreciate the encouragement coming to the commission which has charge of this movement and beg to recommend that such commission be enlarged and continued with the powers conferred upon it a year ago, viz.: "Authorized to elect a Board of Trustees, who shall receive, acquire and administer whatever contributions may be made to the moveent."

We nominate the following persons as members of this commission:

M. J. Perdue, W. B. Young and Mrs. George Gobel, for one year; J. A. Huneke, H. O. Perry and J. D. Behringer, for two years; Dr. Gertrude French, A. A. Callender and H. L. Brainerd, for three years.

ENFORCEMENT OF PROHIBITION LAW

We commend the enactment of the Volstead Law, and pledge to it our hearty support, remembering that no law can be self-enforcing.

We sternly deprecate all efforts now being made to weaken the power of this law by subtle amendments.

We deeply deplore the trifling spirit with which many otherwise desirable citizens treat the enforcement of this law.

We are glad to recognize that most officials are making an honest effort to enforce all prohibition laws; at the same time we condemn the very evident laxity which exists in some quarters.

We pledge ourselves and urge our members to look carefully to the election of Congressmen who will give vital force to the Eighteenth Amendment.

We pledge our support to all officials whose duties it is to carry out the provisions of the Prohibition Law.

J. H. SECOR,

M. H. MARVIN.

CHARITIES AND REFORMS

We commend the work of the Washington Children's Home-Finding Society of Washington and of the sister societies of Idaho and Oregon.

We deplore the efforts of certain elements in our society to break down the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath by unnecessary work or hurtful pleasure. We will resist with all our power the forces that would destroy a fundamental part of our birthright and turn the American Christian Sunday into a day of business and commercialized pleasure.

We believe that the use of tobacco, and especially of cigarettes, is seriously imperiling the future mental, physical, and moral welfare of society and therefore pledge ourselves to discourage this destructive habit.

We express our confidence in and pledge our support to our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals.

We note with dread the spirit of distrust so prevalent in our commercial and industrial life. Let us set ourselves to dam this tide of dissension by imploring our people in the name of our country and our God to place the duties to God and fellow man above individual rights.

As we come to the time when the scientific and industrial advance may come to their fruition in great changes, when capitalistic system, the wage system, the industrial order, the church, the home, the school, the state are being submitted to the attack of all evil forces and to the test of all the age, let us go with humble and prayerful hearts to the feet of the Christ.

We believe in war only as a last recourse. We honor the men who have given their lives to secure to us the blessings of liberty.

But we believe the time has come for all nations to disarm and to settle disputes by arbitration. We commend the President of the United States in calling a disarmament conference and we advocate a general disarmament of the nations and that the United States take the first step in accomplishing this end.

B. C. GALLAHER, Chairman.

Upon the resignation of Miss Ethel Butts, Miss Caroline Jackson of the New England Deaconess Hospital of Boston was secured as Superintendent of the hospital at Spokane. Miss Jackson has directed the work in a most admirable manner during the year.

We wish to commend the faithful work of the Deaconesses within the bounds of the Conference, and of the financial secretaries.

We recommend as Trustees for the Maria Beard Deaconess Association for three years: J. M. Walters, A. A. Callender, H. J. Wood.

For the Central Washington Deaconess Hospital Association:
Pastor at Wenatchee.

The following were selected as members of the Conference Deaconess Board for one year: Pastor at Cashmere, J. M. Walters, H. C. Kohr, H. J. Wood, A. A. Callender, J. H. Secor, M. J. Perdue, Fred Kemp.

We recommend the Appointment of Deaconesses as follows: Spokane Deaconess Hospital—Minnie M. Brown, Rebecca Barr, Eva Burch, Wille Schrader. Wenatchee Deaconess Hospital—Mrs. Jeanette Sigerson, Pearl Kostenbader, Helen Schacht, Winifred Smith. Miss Mary Stevenson, Thorp and Cle Elum Charge; Sadie Smith, Central M. E. Church, Spokane.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The Conference Committee on Hospitals and Homes recommend that the Boards of Trustees of the Conference Hospitals so amend their articles of incorporation that they will conform to the new general Conference legislation.

In view of the new critical financial situation of our hospitals, we recommend and urge that the financial resources of the Conference territory be applied to the hospitals campaign and the members of them are urged to rally to this one thing.

We further recommend that there be a clear understanding on the part of our pastors and churches that the efforts of the past year were made to meet a crisis and that every part of our field be kept open this year for a thoroughly organized campaign to secure the funds needed to clear up not only all indebtedness but also to provide for such new additions as are necessary.

C. C. CURRY,

F. L. MORE.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

The Board of Education

It is gratifying to report that the income of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church has at last risen to such a figure that the Board can be organized in departments.

This makes possible direct supervision of the educational work of the church, and departments are now functioning in the supervision of our denominational colleges, schools in the South, religious work in Colleges, and the Conference Course of Study.

The collections and the payment of loans of the Children's Day Fund have increased quite substantially. This enables the board to assist a larger number of students in our colleges. This fund should be carefully looked after by our pastors, and the proceeds sent directly to the Board of Education in New York.

College of Puget Sound

The College of Puget Sound reports a year of victories. The whole of Methodism was thrilled when the fund of one million dollars was oversubscribed on April 14, 1921.

The enrollment of 264 students in college subjects during the college year, and 266 in Summer School, and the number of the graduating class last June were all above previous records. Then 107 were enrolled in the Summer School for Religious Education, conducted by the Sunday School Board; and if we add the enrollment in the Conservatory of Music, nearly 700 persons received some instruction in the college during the past year.

Many states of the Union have placed the college on the accredited lists of institutions of higher learning, while other states have the matter under consideration.

The General Education Board of New York City set its seal of approval on the college by making to it a formal proposition on May 2, 1921, to make a donation of $250,000 on general endowment, if the college would raise a similar amount for the same purpose.

We congratulate the College of Puget Sound and its President upon this fine achievement, and in recognition of the vital relations existing between us, and of the fact that the subscriptions to the one million dollar fund completed April 14, 1921, were almost wholly made up by people in Western Washington, we pledge our prayers and hearty support, and join with the Puget Sound Conference in thanksgiving to God for these victories.

We place in nomination as Trustees for the period of three years: D. H. Cox, Walla Walla, Wash., and N. M. Jones, and for Conference Visitor, W. B. Young and F. M. Morton.

Willamette University

Willamette University has had a year of unprecedented prosperity, and the opportunity for its future in training the young for the best type of Christian citizenship is a challenge and an inspiration.

Commenting upon this institution, the "Oregonian" said recently, "Willamette has kept the faith."

The new dormitory for young women is a great asset to the school. The loss of the gymnasium by fire in the early 'spring affords a chance for the friends of the institution to give assistance in an effort to care for this department of college life in a worthy way.

Soon a program must be inaugurated for the raising of a million dollars to meet the pledge of the Rockefeller Foundation of $350,000.

We most heartily commend the President, Carl G. Doney, and congratulate both President and Trustees on the success that has come to the University.

For Trustees: G. E. Hunt, Spokane, Wash., and H. F. Pemberton, The Dalles, Oregon; Conference Visitors, Robert Brumblay, Sunny-side, Wash., and Robert E. Smith, Yakima, Wash.

Kimball School of Theology

We are encouraged by the increasing number of choice young people who are responding to the call for life service. This response on the part of our young people calls upon the church to make better provision for their training and equipment.

We appreciate the excellent work being done by the Kimball School of Theology at Salem, and the Northwest Deaconess School at Seattle. But we feel there is a larger field of training to be covered than can be achieved by either institution; and we believe the time has come when there should be adopted for the Northwest a unified program of religious education and training.

We therefore recommend the appointment of a commission of three members from this Conference, one at least of whom shall be a layman, to meet like commissions from the Idaho, Montana, and North Montana Conferences of the Helena area, and from the other Conferences of the Portland area, together with the Bishops of these two areas, and representatives of the Board of Education, to make a thorough study of the situation.

This joint commission shall be requested to determine whether or no a unified program would best serve this great purpose, and to recommend a center for the location of the institution.

For Commission on Unified Program of Religious Education and Training we nominate J. W. Caughlan, H. C. Kohr, and Prof. Carpenter of Pullman, Wash.

We place in nomination as Trustees for Kimball School of Theology: J. R. Forden, Hood River, Oregon, and U. F. Hawk, Spokane, Wash. For Conference Visitor: Chas. MacCaughy, Moscow, Idaho.

Wesley Foundation

We heartily approve the movement for the ultimate establishment of Wesley Foundations at Pullman and Moscow, and desire to nominate for Pullman the following persons to represent this Conference as Trustees: J. C. Cunningham, J. W. Caughlan, George Phillips, Robert Brumblay, H. A. Ellis, and J. M. Walters.

H. C. KOHR, Chairman,
GABRIEL SYKES, Secretary.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF THE COLUMBIA RIVER CONFERENCE, SEPTEMBER 3

Whereas, The laymen of the Columbia River Conference have viewed with pleasure the strong, virile and winning leadership of the forces of Methodism in the Columbia River Conference and the Portland area by our resident Bishop, W. O. Shepard, and,

Whereas, Bishop Shepard is now calling upon the Methodists of the area to meet the enlarged program of the church and face the great responsibilities resting upon her with determination and aggressiveness; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Laymen's Association of the Columbia River Conference hereby pledges its united support to the Bishop in his work for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of Christ in this area and does hereby place at his disposal and the disposal of each pastor of the Conference, the organization and membership of the association in helping meet and solve the tasks and problems of the church in this Conference.

Adopted by unanimous vote of the Laymen's Association.

F. L. DAGGETT, President,
R. L. BRAINARD, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, Under the divine goodness of our Heavenly Father, we have been permitted once more to meet in Annual Conference in the beautiful city of Spokane, the guests of Spokane Methodism, be it therefore

RESOLVED, That we give expression to our gratitude in the following manner:

1. For the cordial welcome extended to us by the Pastor and Official Board of this church and also by the members of the other churches in this city. We have been deeply impressed by the refined dignity and quiet strength of Dr. R. N. Avison and the devotion of the laymen here is also worthy of special mention.

2. We can scarcely give adequate expression to our feelings for the generous attitude of the Spokesman-Review and the Chronicle of this city for the liberal way they have opened their news columns to things of public interest in our Conference sessions.

3. We have thoroughly appreciated the presence of Mrs. Wm. O. Shepard, Bishop H. M. DuBose, Drs. G. A. Landon, W. W. Youngson, S. A. Danforth, Bert E. Smith, A. L. Howarth, Eugene C. Hickman, E. H. Todd and Carl G. Doney.

4. The music of the Conference sessions has been enriched and inspired by the leadership of Mrs. Dayton Stewart of this church, for which we feel a lasting indebtedness.

5. The ministers are grateful to the laymen from the various charges for their inspirational program, for their forward look and for their note of triumph during the coming year.

6. We deem it worthy of special notice to have witnessed the dramatic anniversary of the Deaconess Hospital of this city and also "Granny of the Hills," by the Queen Esther Society of St. Paul's Church.

7. Our Chief Pastor, Bishop Wm. O. Shepard, has endeared himself to the hearts and judgment of the men of this Conference. He leaves us once more indebted to him for the clear, patient judgment and tender sympathy toward the interests, first of the great church of which we are a part, and, secondly, to the numerous details of each pastor and his family. The Conference notes with appropriate expression with what dignity our Bishop has borne the burdens of this Conference. He has reflected Christ and we are grateful.

8. We would especially express our appreciation of the courtesy extended by the Old National Bank of this city to our Conference Treasurer.

MINUTES OF LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE, COLUMBIA RIVER CONFERENCE, HELD AT SPOKANE,
SEPTEMBER 2d, 1921

Meeting held in German Evangelical Church at 9 a. m., September 2d, 1921. Called to order by Dr. R. N. Avison, representing Bishop Shepard.

On motion duly carried, M. F. Mendenhall, L. L. Mann, and Floyd L. Daggett were appointed Committee on Credentials. While waiting for their report, the meeting was addressed by Dr. E. C. Hickman, Seymour Burch, W. V. Carpenter.

The report of the Committee on Credentials was adopted. R. L. Brainard was elected chairman and Floyd L. Daggett secretary.

Bishop Shepard then presented the amendment to be voted upon. After discussion, the following vote was taken, by count:

- Proposed Amendment No. 1—For, 57; against, 2.
Proposed Amendment No. 2—For, none; against, 59.
Proposed Amendment No. 3—For, 41; against, 12.

Meeting adjourned.

R. L. BRAINARD, Chairman,
Kellogg, Idaho.
FLOYD L. DAGGETT, Secretary,
Spokane, Wash.

Conservation and Advance Program

Your committee appointed for the purpose of formulating a Conference Program on Centenary Conservation and Advance beg to submit the following:

First, as soon as possible after the opening of the new Conference year we agree to see that the lists of subscribers to the Centenary are checked carefully, to send to every subscriber a statement every quarter, and to collect funds as rapidly as possible.

Second, to solicit or apportion all new members.

Third, that we observe the last Sunday in October as Centenary Sunday and present to the people the vital things already accomplished by the Centenary, together with the outstanding needs, and that this be followed by an occasional sermon during the year on some phase of the Centenary program.

Fourth, that we put on a Stewardship Campaign at as early an hour in the fall as circumstances will permit, and endeavor to make a large increase in the number of Tithers.

Fifth, that we exercise great care when issuing church letters that complete information concerning the Centenary status of persons involved is given at the same time, and their pledges, if any, inclosed.

Sixth, that the District Superintendents at the First Quarterly Conference of each charge inquire carefully concerning the status of the Centenary and do all in their power to stimulate the same.

Seventh, that our goal during the year be 100% payment on the amounts due on Centenary subscriptions, and that an hour be set aside as "Centenary Hour" on the second forenoon of the Conference session next year.

Eighth, that we recognize the impossibility of achieving the largest results apart from special emphasis upon the spiritual program of the church, and that we unite in a common endeavor to make the coming Conference year the greatest we have ever known in real spiritual and material achievements.

BISHOP SHEPARD

Bishop Shepard's address at the Laymen's Banquet sounded a challenge that we dare not ignore if our church is to meet its obligations to the Kingdom of God. Through the doors of the home, the public schools, and the Sunday Schools, we must enter and capture the youth for Christ. The splendid progress that has been made in the enrollment, attendance and efficiency of our Sunday Schools is very encouraging, but we dare not congratulate ourselves until everything has been done that can be done to reach the hundreds of unreached boys and girls in our communities. No part of our ministerial work has larger opportunities, nor is there a more important task.

The Board of Sunday Schools, through its Institutes and Summer Schools of Religion, is rendering an exceedingly valuable service to our Sunday Schools, which we appreciate, and we urge that our pastors and workers claim for themselves and their schools the inspiration and practical help which these Institutes and Summer Schools afford.

The Conference would indeed be ungrateful if it failed to express its appreciation for the faithful, intelligent and helpful work which our Conference Superintendent of Sunday Schools, M. J. Perdue, is performing. Wherever he goes he inspires new visions, kindles fresh enthusiasms and dispenses wider information for the Sunday School task.

MEMOIRS

SPOKANE ANNUAL CONFERENCE HELD AT ST. PAUL'S M. E. CHURCH

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I am going to speak a few words about my dear wife. She leave me last year and half ago 2nd of Feb., 1920. Her last words was this, O! Mercy Lord. I have finished my good work. O! Mercy Lord, take me up to heaven, and she closed her eyes and slept, truly, she was always willing to go with me wherever I used to go and preach to the Indian Meetings, since in 19 years. She was honest and true upright gentle woman. She leave me and no children, that makes me feel lonesome when I think over about her, thats the reason last year Conference I never come to attend, I was sick and weak, so I went up to mountains and camp out for my health and this summer my health is good and I thank God for He spare my life longer. So I can work for Him wherever He wants me to go. I will go, until I finish my work, then I shall go and met her and all my dear loved ones. Dear brothers and sisters pray for me that I may be more faithful in His work. Praise the Lord and remember yours truly brothers in Jesus name—

(Signed) GEORGE WATERS.

Brother L. N. B. Anderson was born August 16, 1850, in the state of Indiana, and passed away May 14, 1921, at McEwen, Oregon, age 70 years, 8 months, and 26 days.

When thirty years of age, after a good scholastic preparation, he was admitted into the South Kansas Conference. In 1883, he transferred to the Columbia Conference, of which he was a member until his death, with the exception of two years at the time that some of our territory went to the Idaho Conference. Also a period of twelve years, 1892 to 1904, in which he had the located relation.

No one ever thought of accusing Brother Anderson of being lazy or cowardly. He became an active leader in every circle in which he moved, and his temperament was such that he had a rather wide sphere of activity.

He was a reformer and stood for every advance movement that he felt would in any way enhance the interests of the laboring man.

As a located and supernumerary preacher, he was just as much the man of God, the citizen and the reformer, as he was in the active ministry, and after twelve years of this work, in which time he served as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, County Superintendent of Schools, was in the implement and grain business, he came back into the active ministry and without a taint on his record, and with all the fiery zeal of his young manhood, helping to establish the church in a number of needy places in this Inland Empire.

Brother Anderson was a great believer in the power of the Gospel of Christ, and stood faithfully for the "faith once delivered to the saints."

Shortly before he passed away he wrote a letter in which he spoke of his ministry. He said that if he had it to do over again, he would preach the same way—that had never failed to be true to his best conception of a minister of Jesus Christ.

Brother Anderson had a passion for justice and right. It made no difference how matters looked to his friends or to the world, he stood on both feet, squarely for his ideas of right. He was a man of vision, prayer, and deeply devotional. We shall miss his cheery, vigorous presence, but will thank God for the assurance that there will be a welcome for him on the other side.

Funeral services were held at Spokane in charge of Dr. U. F. Hawk.

During his last days he suffered much, but was constantly happy and living a victorious life.

MYRON ROBERT BROWN

Three score and fourteen years ago there was born in the city of Toledo, Ohio, a babe whom the parents named Myron Robert Brown.

His paternal ancestors came to the United States not long after the landing of the Pilgrims. His maternal ancestors were Methodists, having been associated with the early work of John Wesley in England.

When a lad of six years, his parents crossed the plains with an ox team and settled in Clackamas County, Oregon. Soon after arriving in Portland, Oregon, his father died, leaving his mother with two children to care for in a new and strange land. The provision ship which should have brought them supplies was lost at sea and all that winter the family lived on Oregon potatoes and wild game, without salt.

Myron Brown, while yet a boy, was converted as a result of the pioneer missionary work in Oregon. Early in life he felt the call to preach. God served notice on him sufficiently early in life, that he might get his education and training, but his own course swept him out into secular work, and not until after middle life was he reclaimed. As soon as he was reclaimed, he heard again the call to preach, and in 1889, in the 43rd year of his life, he went to his first charge, which was Grants, Oregon.

The next year he was appointed as missionary to the Yakima Indians. Here the sorrow of his life came when his wife sickened and died. So isolated were they that he had to be not only nurse but undertaker and sexton, too. Four daughters have likewise preceded him, while one son, Rev. Arthur W. Brown of the Puget Sound Conference, and one daughter survive him.

Though beginning later than many, yet his ministry continued over a period of thirty years with but one break of two years. During his long pastorate of five years at Wallace, Idaho, serious labor troubles arose, but he commanded the respect of all and rendered good service in assisting the officers of the law in performing their duties.

His ministry was a helpful one, characterized by earnest, fervent prayer and preaching, revivals and conversions. Having made full proof of his ministry, he continued steadfast to the end and died while serving as a supply pastor. At Edwall he became ill. After recovery, he visited his son, Arthur, and was offered the pastorate of Hoquiam, Wash., in the Puget Sound Conference, where he served a short time when the final summons came.

The funeral was held from the church he last served, and his body rests in a little pioneer cemetery near Viola, Clackamas County, Oregon, where have been buried his grandfather, his father and mother, and one daughter—four generations.

Thus we chronicle the passing of this faithful servant of the Lord from a good life here to a better there. As the Bible assures us, "To depart and be with Christ is far better"—better physically—"For when this mortal shall have put on immortality" it will not be subject to aches and pains and human limitations. Better intellectually, for here we "know in part," and there "we shall know as also we are known." Better socially, for there will be no sin nor sorrow there, for "God shall wipe all tears from our eyes." Better spiritually, for here at best "we see through a glass darkly but then face to face," and we have the assurance that "we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is." Therefore

" 'Tis not a cause of small import

The pastor's care demands;

But what might fill an angel's heart,

And filled a Savior's hands."

ROBERT WARNER.

REV. HENRY MOYS

Henry Moys, the eldest son of John and Elizabeth Moys, was born in a Methodist home in Hern Bay, England, March 22, 1835, and eighty-six years later, from his home in Portland, Oregon, on Thursday, April 21, 1921, went triumphantly to his coronation.

When 17 years old, Bro. Moys came with his parents to America, and settled in Chicago. He was converted in old Clark Street Church, soon entered the Northwest University at Evanston, later entered the Methodist Itinerancy, and was admitted on trial in the Kansas Conference in 1858. He was ordained Elder by Bishop Simpson in the year 1861. Our Sunday School Advocate for February 28, 1914, has an article concerning a certain church from which we take the following:

"This is said to be the oldest church in use now in the State of Kansas. It was built in 1861, during the pastorate of the Rev. H. Moys, a pioneer Methodist minister, who is now retired and living on the Pacific Coast. The preacher rafted the black-walnut logs across the Kansas River, and worked hard at the building himself. . . . It is now a historic edifice, for it was the boyhood shrone of Bishop William A. Quayle when he was a typical red-headed, freckle-faced, mischievous lad. The church plot is off of the old Quayle homestead at Auburn, Kansas."

In 1886 Bro. Moys came, by transfer, from Kansas to the Columbia River Conference, and was stationed at Ellensburg, Wash. Afterward he served several charges, and retired finally in 1905.

He and his excellent and accomplished wife were held in very high esteem by all who knew them. While in the retired relation, he served several charges as "supply" in the Oregon Conference. His residence, for many years, has been in Portland, Oregon.

In his later years he very much resembled Bishop Thoburn in appearance and manner. Funeral services were conducted in Centenary-Wilbur Church, Portland, by his pastor, Dr. F. L. Wemett, assisted by Revs. B. J. Hoadley, John Parsons and Harold Oberg, and interment was in Lone Fir Cemetery.

HENRY BROWN.

IN MEMORIAM

Having learned with deep regret that one of our chief pastors, Bishop W. S. Lewis, has passed to the land that knows no pain or death, we hereby express our appreciation of his faithful ministry of love and service. The whole church is bereft.

Our sister republic of China is deprived of the leadership of a rare Christian scholar, whose wise guidance through troublous days has endeared him to the awakening peoples of the Orient.

To the stricken family of Bishop Lewis we extend sympathy, confident that the joy which seeks us through our pain will find and comfort them.

OBITUARY OF WILLIAM S. TURNER

William S. Turner was born at Jersey Shore, Penn., May 28th, 1826, of Methodist parentage. He graduated from Asbury (now Depauw) University in 1852. Soon after graduation he joined the South East Indiana Conference and was transferred to a mission at Diamond Springs, California. After serving several pastorates in California, he went to the Sandwich Islands for his health. The next Conference made Honolulu an appointment, and here he organized the first church. Leaving the Islands in 1859, he was appointed to Downieville in the Sierra Nevada mountains. Next he was called into educational work and his experience was as follows: Two years as professor of English Literature and Latin at University of Pacific; seven years as principal of Napa Collegiate Institute, and later temporary president of Spokane College.

After brief pastorates at Fairfield and Petaluma, he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Petaluma District, which embraced almost all of California north of San Francisco.

In quest of a more favorable climate, in 1879 he transferred to the Columbia River Conference and was stationed at Colfax. He speaks of this pastorate of three years as being in some respects the most pleasant and profitable of his fifty years' ministry.

He was again appointed Presiding Elder with residence at Lewiston, Idaho. Other important pastorates were Lewiston, Colfax a second time, and Union Park, Spokane. In 1896 he retired and made his home with his daughter. He died at Spokane rather suddenly November 12th, 1920, at the ripe old age of 94 years, 5 months, 14 days. Funeral services were held from the Liberty Park Church, conducted by Dr. U. F. Hawk and the writer.

MARCUS MARCELLUS WALTZ

Marcus Marcellus Waltz was born in Lincoln, Neb., January 31, 1860, and came to Oregon with his parents in 1862. The larger part of his life has been spent in the Belknap Settlement in Benton County, Oregon. He attended the Willamette University, finishing his course in 1884, and immediately following his graduation led to the altar his classmate, Miss Mary Starr, daughter of a well-known minister of the Oregon Conference, who has been his helpmeet and has shared his trials and blessings through the intervening years.

In September, 1884, he joined the Columbia River Conference. His early ministry gave great promise of success and usefulness. He served the Spokane Circuit and Colfax. From Colfax he was called to the professorship in the Spokane College, where he worked with acceptability until, his health failing, he was compelled to lay aside active service. He spent six years in California seeking to recover strength but was never able to again enter active ranks. Yet his life has ever been filled with service and he was in constant demand for those most sacred ministries which they who knew him best chose him to perform rather than another.

He died in a hospital at Corvallis, Oregon, November 1, 1920. His body was laid to rest in the Bellefontaine Cemetery near his home. He leaves his widow, three sons, Ray M. Waltz of Brownsville, Ore.; Roswell S., and Loyd B. Waltz, who are attending the Willamette University, and a brother, H. W. Waltz, formerly a member of the Columbia River Conference, now residing in California.

He was a faithful Christian, a true brother and a loyal friend. The memory of the just is blessed.

Rules of Order

I. The Conference shall open its sessions at 8:30 a. m. and adjourn at 12 m. The first thirty minutes shall be devotional services under charge of the Presiding Bishop.

II. The bar of the Conference shall be fixed by vote; but preachers' wives and visiting clergymen are invited to sit within the bar.

III. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if the President or any member requests it and no report from Committees shall be received until duplicate copies are placed in the hands of the Secretary.

IV. It shall be the duty of every member to give his vote on all questions unless for special reasons, the Conference excuses him; but no member who is not within the bar shall be allowed to vote except by leave of the Conference.

V. The vote on any question before the Conference shall be taken by roll call, if such is asked for by thirteen members.

VI. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question; nor more than ten minutes at any time, without permission of the Conference; nor shall anyone speak more than once till every one desiring to speak shall have done so.

VII. The Auditing Committee shall report upon the distribution of funds received for ministerial support, noting each instance, where the pro rata shares have not been paid to the Pastor, District Superintendent, Bishop and Conference Claimants. Failure to comply with the requirements shall be sufficient cause for careful inquiry by the Committee on Conference Relation.

VIII. No person shall be admitted on trial in the Conference or by credentials from other churches who is past thirty-five years of age and who cannot furnish to the Board of Examiners satisfactory evidence of having completed a course of study equivalent to that of the high schools of the State of Washington.

IX. No candidate shall be examined after the commencement of Conference without the consent of the Board of Examiners.

X. The Secretary, Statistical Secretary and Treasurer shall nominate their assistants; and the officers and managers of the different Conference societies are authorized to appoint persons to fill any vacancies which may occur during the year.

XI. When any one of our members is called from earth, it shall be the duty of the nearest Pastor, or Superintendent of the District, to notify all the preachers in the district of such death, and of the time set for the funeral services.

XII. The Superintendent of the District, and the preacher in charge of the station where the Conference is to be held, together with the Presidents of the several Conference Societies, are instructed to arrange the program of religious exercises, and if practicable, secure their publication in the PACIFIC CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

XIII. There shall be an executive session of the Conference on the afternoon of the second day unless the time shall be otherwise designated by vote of the Conference.

XIV. It shall require two-thirds of those present and voting to change or suspend any of these rules.

XV. Memorial Service shall be held on the first day of the Conference session each year, immediately following the administration of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. At each session of the Conference a standing committee on memoirs shall be appointed by the Bishop, to be in charge of the Memorial Service at the succeeding Conference session. The chairman of this committee shall be responsible for the preparation of a brief memoir of each member of the Conference, or wife of a member of Conference, deceased during the year, which memoir shall be read at the Memorial Service. At each session the Bishop shall appoint a member of the Conference to prepare a suitable Memorial Address of not more than fifteen minutes in length, to be delivered at the Memorial Service of the following session.

XVI. All members of the Conference in the effective relation, and all ministers who are changing their relation to effective, and taking appointments, all superannuates, all preachers on trial, all candidates for admission on trial, and all supplies, who attend the session of the Columbia River Annual Conference must file with the Secretary on or before noon of the second day of the session a statement showing the name of the person, the name of the charge from which he came, the fare paid each railroad, stage or other conveyance within the bounds of the Conference in coming to the seat of the Annual Conference, on a blank provided for that purpose.

The aggregate amount of these fares shall be divided by the number of persons in attendance and the quotient of such division shall be deemed the average fare. All persons who have not paid an actual fare equal to or more than the average fare shall pay the Secretary an amount equal to twice the difference between the fare he actually paid and the average fare. When all such payments shall have been made, the Secretary shall pay to those who have paid more than the average fare an amount equal them, the difference between the average fare and the fare actually paid by them, provided, that no superannuate within the bounds of the Conference shall be expected to contribute to the equalization, but may reap any benefit accruing to him therefrom.

XVII. The Conference shall consider in executive session all personal matters regarding the character of members, or the character of any who are proposed for membership.

XVIII. Roberts' Rules of Order shall be the standard of parliamentary usage.

XIX. The Conference Deaconess Board shall nominate the Trustees for the Maria Beard Deaconess Hospital Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also three Trustees for the Central Washington Deaconess Hospital, in the manner prescribed by the Articles of Incorporation of the said Association.
